ENGLISH TRANSLATION: Libya, while being pulled into the swirl of civil war since 2011, has been struggling against the wave of migrants who try to reach Europe by taking advantage of the administrative vacuum in the country.

- 90 % of the irregular migrants who had reached to shores of Italy came via Libya in 2016.
- Since 2014 approximately 18,500 people lost their lives
- Last year Libyan Coast Guard stopped 15,000 migrants in the Mediterranean and carried them back. According to IOM figures, only this year until now 3,750 migrants brought back to Libya
- There are around 50,000 registered irregular migrants and asylum seekers within the boundaries of Libya. The total number of migrants in Libya is around 800,000.
- UNHCR spokesperson said that there are 5,800 irregular migrants held at the migration centers, 3,800 of them are in conflict zones.
